1	10,000 to 12,000 BC	California	Native Americans came to California about this time, probably came from Asia, migrating down from the North. Native Americans established villages near major sources of water, which also provided food. Migration was very slow, the average native American didn't travel more than 5 to 10 miles from their homeland. Most villages were from 50 to 200 people. As the tribe grew, a group would break away and form a new village nearby.	A Time of Little Choice-Randy Milliken			1/1/10
2	500 AD	Yankee Hill-Concow	Migration into the Concow Valley was probably after 800 AD. At various times it has been estimated that between 4000 and 7000 Concow Indians lived in the greater Concow area (later defined in 1877 by Stephen Powers, "Tribes of California", as extending from Oroville to Chico and the foothills near Concow Valley. Powers mentions Bidwell as one of the early pioneers to suggest the size of the area inhabited by the Concow tribes). Villages consisted of several grass huts with the floor dug out in a circle. If they were to support multiple families, they could measure 18 to 20 feet in diameter. In the mountainous areas, there were more sprawling communities than in the lower areas. The tribe would migrate back down to the lower elevations in the winter, sometimes as far as 25 miles, following the water supply. See May 1905	Konkou Valley Band of Maidu web page & History of Butte County 1918 & History of Butte County by McGie Vol#1, Tribes of California by Stephen Powers			1/1/10
3	1769.00.00	California	We shortly saw a throng of heathens coming out of the mountains in a file. We counted 40 some men with bows and arrows, some having staffs painted with many colors all hung with large bunches of feathers like wreaths hanging from them, and two of the heathens were laden with two very large rush baskets; they all came out upon the way in front of us...they were insistent we should go to their village. At last after some time, we took our leave..... On our going a short way, two other heathens from another village came out to meet us and were also vehement that we should go to their village, which they gave us to understand was in that neighborhood. The Governor gave them to understand we could not, that we had to go on, that if they wished, they might visit us where we were going to camp. They were sorry for this and left us, plainly offended that we would not go with them (Father Juan Crespi 1769)	A Time of Little Choice-Randy Milliken			1/1/10

By 1836 when the mission was secularized and closed, most of the Livermore Indians had already died from disease.	Early Livermore, Livermore Heritage Guild			1/1/10

10	1810.05.20		Over the last three years, things were brought to a sorry fate as 16 Christians were killed by Indians to the north of the San Francisco Presidio. On May 22, 1810, the Suisuns with a force of 120 fighting men were attacked by a Spanish party, consisting of 17 soldiers and an auxiliary force of Christian Indians of unknown size, under the command of second Lieutenant Gabriel Moraga...said second Lieutenant...took as prisoners 18 pagans. They were set free because they were gravely wounded and he had no way to transport them. He believes that not one of them could have avoided death. Toward the end of the action, the surviving Indians sealed themselves in three brush houses, from which they made a tenacious defense, wounding the corporals and two soldiers. Those were the only injuries sustained by the troop. No one was killed. After having killed the pagans in two of the grass houses, the Christians set fire to the third grass house, as a means to take the pagans prisoner. But they did not achieve the result, since the valiant Indians died enveloped in flames before they could be taken into custody. The second Lieutenant said he could not reason with the pagans who died fighting or by burning (Jose Arguello 1810).	A Time of Little Choice-Randy Milliken			1/1/10

64	1850.04.13	Sacramento	Assemblyman Brown introduced Assembly Bill # 129, "An Act for the Government and Protection of Indians". This bill talked about punishment of Indians as well as authorized the indenture of vagrant Indians by whites. Indian children could be indentured until they reached the age of 18 for males and 15 for females. Adults could be indentured by whites who paid fines incurred by Indians levied by the Justice of the Peace until the fines were paid back in full. The whites were required to provide proper food and clothing. Unfortunately, this law was abused by some whites who fought with Indians. The parents would be killed and the children sold into indentured slavery for $25 to $75 each. The law came under scrutiny in the 1860s when the civil war broke out and Lincoln released the slaves. The law also stated Indians could not testify against whites in trials, although they could register complaints with a Justice of the Peace. An Indian was defined in 1850 as anyone with 50% Indian blood, in 1851 it was modified to anyone with 25% Indian blood.	Early California Laws and Policies Related to California Indians by Kimberly Johnston-Dodds, Prepared at the request of Senator John L. 65	1850.05.09		"Bloody doings on the North Fork"; Some twenty miles above Auburn, Indians killed 2 miners without warning. A company of about 20 men from Auburn and Kelly's Bar were in pursuit of the Indians and found them in a valley near Illinoistown, thought to be 100 strong. They were armed with bows and arrows and one gun. The whites immediately fired upon the Indians resulting in 25 dead bodies being found after. The scalps were exhibited in Auburn. It is believed by many of the miners that white men are among the Indians inciting them to hostilities with a German doctor leading them. A meeting was held for the purpose of scouring the country and making war with the Indians and 15-20 volunteers enrolled. It is felt that men have the right to defend themselves but also fear that the Indians have not always been dealt with in the right spirit of the country.	Sacramento Transcript 5-9-1850	Y	Filed by Date	11/24/15

Gold Lake was a story circulated by Tom Stoddard, a miner who had become lost in the mountains and claimed to find a lake in 1949 whose shores were lined with gold. Many miners would try and find Gold Lake, but to no avail. Rich Bar was a discovery on such an expedition. The story was also, probably, responsible for the miners coming to the Rich Gulch, Frenchtown, Spanishtown area.	History of Rich Bar A Blue Ribbon Gold Camp by Jim Young 1983	Y		1/1/10

The article asks the people of California to exercise restraint. The agents acknowledge the Indians have caused problems and in some cases the response by whites is understandable; but it also states there has been much life sacrificed and ill feelings generated unnecessarily. It goes on to state "All good citizens and emigrants are interested in restoring to the frontier settlements the peaceful and amiable relations which once so happily existed between them and the Indians. It is essential to the character of the State, and indeed of the United States, as a civilized and Christian nation, that a stop should be put to the shedding of blood." 70	1851.08.01	Chico	Meeting at Bidwell's Ranch in Chico to sign "Treaty of Friendship" with the local Indians. 10 tribes, 300 Indians, met with representatives of the Federal Government (O.M. Wozencraft, Indian Agent, Edward Fitzgerald, Brevet Major First Dragoons, George Stoneman, Lt. First Dragoons, Thomas Wright, 2nd Lt. Second Infantry were present) to establish a reservation that stretched from Chico to Nimshew, then to Cherokee, and finally just north of Oroville. Nine tribes signed the agreement; the Concow Chief, Kulmeh, refused to sign. The Concows wanted to keep their village Taiyum Koyo and their hunting territory. Bidwell remarked later that jackets had been brought as gifts for the Chiefs. The Chiefs also wanted shirts and pantaloons which were not available, so they threw the jackets on the ground. Bidwell also stated that the Chiefs were not very much different from the other Indians. The Federal Government never ratified the treaty. 71	1851.12.30	Pence Ranch	First recorded disturbance with Indians in Butte County occurred near Pence Ranch in Messilla Valley. On New Year's Eve, a party of six or seven Indians stayed at Pence's Ranch, one was the Concow Chief. Pence had been suspicious of the Indians. Later that night Pence's cattle disappeared, the Concow Indians also had left. The next morning Pence pursued the Indians, wounding the Indian Chief with a bullet in the hip. Later the Chief was found and brought to Pence who hanged him from a tree next to the post office on Pence's Ranch. The cattle were found several days later.	History of Butte County 1882			1/1/10

81	1853.01.22	Pence Ranch	More Indian Difficulties - Death of a Chief. Article written at Lyon's Ranch, Messilla Valley, Butte County, Ca (later named Pence's Ranch). Article in The Marysville Herald dated Jan 15th gave an account of an affray with the Indians which resulted in the death of eighteen or twenty. Yesterday evening information was received that the old Chief was at Frenchtown, a mining settlement across the West Branch, four or five miles distant, openly threatening vengeance upon the whites for the severe castigation they had received. A party of eight was immediately formed, and at 6 o'clock set out from Hastings Ranch, crossed the river, arrested and brought back the old chief, arriving at 11 o'clock. After binding him, a strong guard was placed over him to prevent the possibility of his escape, until the next morning. He was removed about a mile to Lyon's Ranch, and after a short deliberation, it was unanimously resolved to hang him at once. Arrangements were soon made and the redoubtable old brave, who has figured so conspicuously in every Indian affray of importance in this region, since the introduction of the whites, after calmly surveying the preparations made for his execution, met his fate with consummate bravery. He was suspended by the neck to a limb of an old oak in the neighborhood. The vote deciding upon this course was unanimous, but there is at least one who strongly doubts the policy or justice of the proceedings. Time will show. There are still two chiefs remaining, and a tribe that can muster at least 250 fighting men, in the immediate neighborhood of a small scattered population of exposed and defenseless whites. What course they together with their allies, the Tigres and Nimshevs, will prevail remains to be seen. (It is supposed the Indian Chief was the Concow Chief, Kulme, who didn't sign the treaty in 1851. See 8-1-1851. Editor's Note: Frenchtown was a white mining settlement so the Chief must have spoken some English.)	San Francisco Alta California 1-22-1853	Y	Filed by Date	1/1/10

The Indians have committed so many depredations in the North, of late, that the people are enraged against them, and are ready to knife them, shoot them, or inoculate them with small pox - all of which has been done. Thomas & Toombs have paid 2 men $100 a month to kill the digger Indians like other beasts of prey. One of them a man named Breckenridge was alone and armed only with a bowie knife when he came across four Indians and attacked them. They told him to leave and commenced shooting arrows at him, but undaunted he attacked anyway. He succeeded in killing one and took another captive while the other two escaped. He immediately proceeded to moon's ranch where the citizens hung him. On Friday the 25th stock was stolen from Mr. Carter of Butte County valued at $3,000. Goes on to talk about a party of 12 men tracking the Indians where they were hid out in a cave. Capt Geo Rose shot the first Indian, in all 13 were killed as they left the cave. Three Chiefs of different tribes as well as three women used as shields were killed. Three women and five children were captured. Capt Rose took one child and Mr. Lattimer another. 85	1853.07.00	West Branch	Indians killed 10 Chinese miners on the West Branch. A pursuit was made and the Indian camp was found 1 mile away; 40 to 60 Indians were killed by the white and Chinese pursuers. (Granville Stuart also talks about this in his journals. He indicated that 2 Chinese were killed on the West Branch by Concow Indians; 16 whites and 12 Chinese went after the Indians. Several of the Chinese had shotguns, but they didn't know how to shoot, so they would close their eyes when they used them and shot both barrels at once. He thought only a few Indians were actually killed. He also stated the Indians did not like the Chinese because they thought they were another tribe of Indians).	History of Butte County 1882. The resolution states that anyone aware of such actions by friends of human nature will contact the Justice of the Peace and ask the District Attorney to seek prosecution. 88	1854.09.01	Tehama County- Nome Lackee Reservation	Nome Lackee Indian Reservation, the second of five reservations in California, was founded in Tehama County in September. It was located 60 miles northeast of Round Valley and southwest of Red Bluff—no reservation was to exceed 25,000 acres. The Indian population at Nome Lackee was 800 in Oct 1854 and 1000 in Aug 1865, consisting of Pit River, Trinity and Nevada Indians. The total California Indian population was estimated at 61,000. There was an investigation against Indian Agent Geiger who assumed control in 1857, resulting in his being relieved of duty in 1859. There was no serious management of the reservation after that. By 1862, the reservation was in serious decline with most of the Indians gone by the end of 1864. Those remaining, were sent to Round Valley (Nome Cult Farm, see June 1856). The Tehama reservation was formally closed in 1866 and the land was sold off in 1870. Five Indians were killed. Bidwell later stated about this incident that the valley Indians made their own arrows but purchased their bows from the mountain Indians. 95	1856.08.22	Chico	Article about Indian fight six miles from Chico between Bidwell's Indians and a tribe that belonged across the river. It seems to be a periodical affair with these savages. They fought on an appointed day at the spot named and with such as much system and regularity as their more civilized brethren. The struggle was carried on for several hours and with a savage fierceness equal to any contest that has been witnessed for a long time. There is a peculiarity in this mode of warfare that we presume is not generally known. It is that when in the heat of a conflict - arrows flying as thick as hail - and the air is rent with the hideous war cry - little children, by mutual consent, are sent into the ranks of the enemy to pick up the poisonous arrows that have missed their mark, and return them to the quiver of the hostile parent to again be sent whizzing into the enemy's ranks. The women were complaining about their boys being taken by whites and they begged and pleaded for their return. Six wagons were brought in and filled with Indians and their stuff. The bucks in high glee were pushing them, stopping every now and then by a signal from Old Walkatow to stop and give three cheers, which were always given with vigor, aided by the stimulated vigor of a large bottle of Minie-Gin. At Meyers Ranch, there was a halt and many a melon found its way into the wagons, thanks to the generosity of the proprietor. They found seven Indians on the ridge but were not able to get close enough to shoot them. The Indians said the whites were not fighters and to send their women after them. The Indians stated they were keeping the horses. Later, Jack Wiatt was able to shoot one Indian and take him capture. In plain English, he said they were Inskip Indians and there were many Indians taking part in the stealing. He also said he learned English at Cold Spring Valley. One other Indian was shot with buckshot and fell but later fled. They came across him later and killed him; they stated he was hurt too bad to return with them. The writer said this seemed rather harsh and hoped Lt. Deyer would return and help subdue the Indians so that this was not repeated again. Writer also feels many involved with Indian affairs are spending too much time attending political events and not enough time working on Indian affairs. Capt. 169	1859.07.29	Oroville	A correspondent writing in the Butte Record of August 6, 1859 from the Forks of the Butte dated July 29, 1859 states: The most brutal and atrocious wholesale slaughter of Indians that has occurred in Butte County for many days was perpetrated at the Indian Rancheria yesterday. The Rancheria is situated about 2 1/2 miles from this place. The Rancheria was attacked about daylight when an indiscriminant slaughter commenced. Nine Indians were killed—five bucks, two squaws and two children, and four others were wounded, two perhaps fatally. The camp was plundered of rifles and money. The perpetrators of this inhuman and bloody crime are unknown. They were white men no one doubts. They say they were disguised, their faces being blacked and they came from the direction of the valley. These Indians have been here since the whites and are known to be peaceable. However, there were two or three bad ones among them, one in particular called Malc Jo. He seems to be a particular object of revenge, having been shot four or five times and his scalp taken by his bloody murderers.	History of Butte County 1918			1/1/10
170	1859.08.02	Tehama County	Report by Wm. C. Kibbe, Adj. General, State of California, dated Jan. 16, 1860. Report talks about past actions against the Indians based on orders received Aug 2, 1859. He rounded up volunteers, consisting of 90 experienced mountain men and Indian fighters, in Tehama County. They went after the Indians that had been causing problems by killing the rancher's stock. He split the group into three detachments. He finally chased the Indians into the Hat Creek and Pit River country, which was considered by the Indians as impregnable. Past attempts by the local settlers had been unsuccessful in routing out the Indians from that territory. He made several attacks over several nights killing many Indians. The Indian Chief sent in 8 warriors stating they would accept the terms of their surrender; 450 Indians appeared in camp to be taken to the reservation. In 5 weeks Kibbe's volunteers had killed 200 warriors and taken 1200 prisoners. 171	1859.08.03	Deer Creek	Article about John Breckenridge and his party, under paid subscription, being sent to Deer Creek. Five Indians and a pale face (white) leader are now sleeping the sleep of death. The scalp of the white man was taken and brought back by Mr. Breckenridge. The next day they killed 10 more Indians including one squaw who tried to protect a buck. On Sunday an hour before sunset, the houses of Mr. Roundtree and Mr. Anderson were set on fire by Indians. People are leaving the area. No doubt the Indians have white accomplices. When they raided a rancheria last week, it contained flour, sugar, dishes and nearly all the comforts usually found in cabins of white people. It is understood that there are 40 to 50 white brutes living on the headwaters of Butte Creek with squaws in a state of concubinage and they uphold and protect the Indians in all their depredations. The white man shot last week is unknown to anyone here; it is no doubt he is one of the Butte Creek squaw men.	Red Bluff Beacon 8-3-1859	Y	Filed by Date	1/1/10

173	1859.08.10	Tehama County	Article complains about the murders and robberies committed by Indians and how much longer can this section of the county take it. Complains about white men cohabitating with squaws and providing guns to the bucks. They are advising the Indians to wipe out the unprotected citizens of the area. There is fear the Indians will destroy men, women and children and burn their houses, ranches and grain.	Red Bluff Beacon 8-10-1859	Y	Filed by Date	1/1/10
174	1859.08.17	Tehama County	Article mentions Gen. Kibbe will be organizing a volunteer company to march against the hostile Indians in the eastern part of the county. The following officers were elected; Capt. Wm. Burns, 1st Lt. Robert Baily, 2nd Lt. Mr. Van Shell, Brevet 2nd Lt. Mr. McCarty. The company will proceed immediately to the field of their labors. 175	1859.08.17	Tehama County	Article about the Indians at the Forks of the Butte. (Forks of the Butte was a small community of about 300 people at the time). Talks about the recent letter condemning the killing of Indians there, defends the Breckenridge party for their actions. Suggests the letter was written on 7-29-1859 by a white man with an Indian squaw. Also confirms the Breckenridge party was hired by local people to clear the area. 176	1859.08.20	Forks of the Butte	Article written by a correspondent of the "Express" from that place challenging the statement in the Red Bluff Beacon that the Indians at the Forks of the Butte are causing all the problems in the area. There are 300 souls in the area and they have contact with the Indians daily and they have no problems. Mr. Breckenridge was wrong when he shot a blind Indian (like a dog) being led by his squaw. There may be two or three bad Indians from other tribes in the area, but the entire Indian population should not all suffer. (Note: Forks of the Butte was near current day Forest Ranch).	Butte Democrat 8-20-1859	Y	Filed by Date	1/1/10

178	1859.08.24	Tehama County	Gen. Kibbe has sent three companies into the mountains consisting of 75 men. First Lt. Bailey is headed for Antelope Mills, Capt. 179	1859.08.31	Tehama County	Gen. Kibbe and a detachment of his men commanded by Capt. Byrnes succeeded in surrounding a Rancheria attacked a few weeks back by Breckenridge and took every Indian in it prisoner. They started immediately for the Mendocino Reservation. Among the captives were a squaw and three children of a white man. His earnest solicitation for their release was granted by the General if he married the squaw, which he did. 180	1859.08.31	Red Bluff	Rebuttal to the article about squaw men at the Forks of the Butte in the "Express", stating that it is supposed that the "Amalgamation" (I believe this was a store at the Forks of the Butte) Clerk, Wallace, is the writer of the rebuttal and he is a known squaw man. He has three children and a squaw that are currently being taken by Gen. Kibbe's men to the Mendocino Reservation. If he truly wants to keep his children, he should marry the squaw. Another article talks about Capt. Breckenridge killing a blind Indian Chief on the headwaters at Deer Creek known as the "Doctor". Also talks about Indians being poisoned if they did not join in the depredations against whites in the valley below. The poison was undoubtedly provided by merchants and clerks in the area. 182	1859.09.03	Chico	General Kibbe said he will send his soldiers, numbering 80 men, to vote in the election upon their return. They would all vote the straight ticket, most are from Tehama County . It is doubtless their intention to vote in all the precincts as they return. Every effort should be made so they do not vote in Butte County elections as they have no residence in this county.	Weekly Butte Record 9-3-1859	Y	Filed by Date	1/1/10
183	1859.09.03	Forks of the Butte	Talks about the elections in Butte County and a ball held at that place. At the end of the article, mentions General Kibbe and Capt. 184	1859.09.07	Dogtown	Article about 10 Indian prisoners captured by John Breckenridge under Gen. Kibbe's command at Butte Creek. Among the prisoners was a squaw. A miner named Cain tried to claim the squaw as his. He was refused his request to have her. Cain left and returned 2 hours later with 45 men from Diamondville including the Deputy Sheriff, a man named Cheesman. The group took Breckenridge, G.M. Stratton and M. Amesby of Breckenridge's command as prisoners and released the Indians. Cain later married the squaw at Dogtown while her buck was still alive, although he had been shot. Breckenridge stated the motive was the desire by the locals to keep the squaws in the area. Note: Squaw men as they were called, were usually mountain men or miners who took Indian women as concubines. In some cases, they also dealt in the selling of the children after they killed the male Indian.	Red Bluff Beacon 9-7-1859	Y	Filed by Date	1/1/10
185	1859.09.14	Tehama County	It is well known that the inhabitants of the Eastern part of the county (Tehama), as well as the North part of Butte County, are suffering from Indian depredations. The depredations have been on the rise the last three years and their audacity and adroit thefts astonished everyone. The loss of life and property occur almost daily. The people have contacted Governor Weller for relief, who has contacted General Clark for help from the US Government. Gen. Clark dispatched 60 soldiers under Capt. Flint of the sixth Army, who was stationed at Antelope to begin raids in the area but the Indians removed to other parts. Gov. Weller promptly called on General Kibbe to begin rounding up the Indians. General Kibbe enlisted a detachment from Red Bluff for service. Three companies were organized to round up the Indians, one by Lt. Van Shell, one by Capt. Burns, and another by Lt. Bailey. They are in hot pursuit and have captured and sent 40 or 50 Indians to the reservation in Mendocino County. One of the companies is now heading to Hat Creek to look for the Indians who are murdering and stealing along the road to Yreka. There is great faith in these companies by the Governor and the townspeople to solve the problems.	Red Bluff Beacon 9-14-1859	Y	Filed by Date	1/1/10

Among them were three Concow Chiefs; Tippee, who was said to be daring, Moolak (Moolah) and Yumyau (Yumyan). At least six others under Kibbe's direction headed campaigns in the two counties: (Jordan, Lt. Bailey near Hat Creek), (Capt. Byrnes, Lt. 189	1859.09.21	Concow	Article about Capt. Byrnes traveling to Concow Valley (around Sept 10th). He succeeded in capturing 3 Concow Chiefs, Tippee, Moolah and Yumyan. Tippee was said to be dangerous and daring. Yumyan, also know as Wm. Pete, spoke fluent English and stated he was head Chief of all the Concow Indians. Others had said he had never been hostile towards the whites. Yumyan estimated the population of Concow Indians at 1,000. Yumyan was overheard saying to Capt. 192	1859.09.24	Bangor	Article entitled "Trouble Among The Indians". States a man named Abbott who resides on the Honcut in Butte County went to an Indian settlement known as Hardy's Camp to take a squaw from a buck by force and started off with her. The buck decided he would not let her go so he shot her with an arrow and she died. Abbot returned the next night with a gun and shot the buck in the thigh. The Indians drew their guns and fired at Abbot but missed. They then gathered around Abbott and beat him, breaking his nose and seriously injuring him. The affair caused an excitement in the area and considerable feeling is manifested against Abbott. It appears that he was formerly what is called a squaw man. The general sentiment among the people of that section is regret that Abbott was not more severely punished by the Indians. They are becoming tired and disgusted with such characters. California Indians, Butte, Tehama and Lassen Counties Timeline

210	1859.12.07	Tehama County	Second very long article describing Gen. Kibbe's Rangers campaign. Parts of the article are hard to read as the copy on film is very light in spots. Talks about for the last five years there have been problems with roving Indian bands. Lists 25 people killed in the last year. Claims losses from Indian destruction are estimated at $100,000 since 1856. The citizens of Tehama County have had no assistance from the military. They petitioned the Governor to establish a volunteer army commanded by Gen. Kibbe, who has rid the area of Indians in the last three months with a group of 80 men. Notes the capture of Shave Head, an Indian Chief working out of the Hat Creek area and the Pit River area, with about 60 to 80 Indians composed of members from several tribes, causing the bulk of the problem. Other local tribes were sympathetic to the group and offered some assistance. In the south, 300 Indians were captured and sent to the Mendocino Reservation. In the north, about 700 were captured and 200 killed. Claims only a few Indian women and children were killed by accident during battles with Indians resisting capture. 220	1860.01.16	Sacramento	Long article about the Mendocino Indians. Article commends Capt Jarboe on his recent actions. Gives some history of the requests made in the past of the Governor for help. Past requests were for additional men for Jarboe because of a lack of support from the Government troops in the area. Article mentions the Governor felt only a small band of Indians are causing the problem and Jarboe should place his command on the defensive so as to not hurt innocent Indians. Second article talks about the cost of these campaigns and that they are all necessary because the Indians are starving which causes the conflicts. 238	1861.02.09	Round Valley	Indian Troubles - the Indians in the vicinity of Round Valley are again likely to make a winter's trouble for white settlers. The whites have recently had a fight with them, killing 18 Indians. The unusual severity of winter has doubtless reduced the Indians to a condition bordering on starvation. They are committing serious depredation on the stock of the settlers.	Butte Democrat 2-9-1861	Y	Filed by Date	1/1/10
239	1861.02.23	Butte County	A battle was fought at Dry Creek on Saturday last between a band of Mountain Indians on one side and the Neal's Ranch Indians on the other. After the killing of one Indian on each side and wounding of several others, the mountain Indians retreated and were pursued some distance by the Neal's Ranch Indians aided by some from Chico. The Valley Indians on their return to the battleground, took the body of their slain enemy and cut off his arms, legs and head. Then they returned to their camp. 240	1861.03.09	Mendocino	Mendocino Herald - The Yreka tribe are those mostly within the valley and immediately adjoining the mountains. They number perhaps five or six hundred; whilst the Lackees, a more warlike and unfriendly class, range within a scope of country some ten or twelve miles round and number perhaps two thousand or more. They have a great dread of the reservation and will not remain on it when taken there. They seem to take pleasure in killing all kinds of stock whenever the opportunity arises. They are particularly fond of mule meat. A few days since the slaughter, carcasses of horses and mules were found scattered in all directions upon their trail and large quantities of supplies laid upon their Rancheria. 244	1861.05.26	Oroville	A reorganization of the Oroville Guard occurred May 27, 1861, when the unit enrolled as a company of infantry in the First Regiment of Volunteers and tendered their services for an indefinite period to assist the United States Government in the War of the Rebellion which had been declared the month previous. During the Civil War, the corps used the Oroville's brick theater for an armory which provided for the safety of the arms against fire and theft. The reorganization of the Guard was also particularly advantageous to the citizens of Butte County as the need of military protection at that time was important due to the constant uprisings and merciless raids of the Indians in that territory. The seriousness of the disturbances was evident when a short time later forty men of Company F, 2nd Infantry, California volunteers were stationed at Chico to assist in quelling the Indian depredations. In 1863 Captain Hunt and a number of the Guardsmen made an expedition through the Concow and Oregon townships. 245	1861.07.01	Nome Lackee Reservation	G. M. Hanson, as Superintendent of the Northern District, filed a report on conditions at Nome Lackee Reservation. No land was fenced, the buildings were in neglect and in disrepair. Reservation land was in possession of whites, who had received permission to occupy from Commissioner Henley, and had legitimized the process through the use of laying school warrants on the property. The same parties had also managed to have indentured large numbers of Indians for a period of 10 to 15 years. He estimated it would take $20,000 to make the necessary repairs. Of the 2,000 to 3,000 Indians supposedly at the reservation, he found only 200.	The Nome Lackee Indian Reservation 1854-1870 by Hislop			1/1/10

The article talks about the reservations and is sympathetic to the Indians and their poor living conditions. States the Government used the California mission system as a model for the reservations becoming self sufficient. Unfortunately, Indian Agents were appointed for their political connections, rather than their ability to manage a system for people from another culture. Mentions how the whites killed many Indians near the reservation so they could prosper. is a very harsh review of the Government's actions and was obviously written by someone very familiar with the history of the California reservation system. The Chief talked with the reservation Supervisor James Short and told him they were leaving the reservation to see their homeland again. Tome-Ya-Nem stated "500 strong" lined up to leave. The Indians, mostly Concow and Hat Creek, started their march back to their homeland (Concow Indians called it Wei-Lu-Da) near Chico in Butte County. During the 80 mile march near the Sacramento River, they were met by California Indian Superintendent Hanson in a carriage, who wanted to know why they left the reservation. The Concow Chief said they were not going back because there was no food. Because they were "good Indians" on the reservation, the Superintendent allowed them to continue on. They ended up about 5 miles from Chico near present day Hamilton City where they tried to find work on local ranches. 260	1863.00.00	Oregon City	Anna Morrison and her mother Mary Elmira Morrison arrived in Oregon City, joining the father and husband Guy Morrison, who had been mining in the area since about 1850. In the late 1850s, Mary Morrison built a stone wall around their property about 3ft tall with the help of an Indian named Charlie Morrison, who was from a Table Mountain tribe called the Wyamis that was massacred by the Picas Indians in 1853. (The Picas were a mountain tribe and very warlike; they were called the "Tigers" by the locals). Charlie was informally adopted by Guy Morrison after his parents were killed. Apparently Charlie Morrison, his wife and two children were among the Indians rounded up in 1863 and sent to the reservation by M.G. Wells and Mr. Marquis. The two children died on the reservation, after which Charlie and his wife ran away and returned to Butte County; Charlie's wife died several years later. Charlie Morrison died in December 1917 and is buried in the Oregon City Cemetery.	Excerpted from the book "Anna Morrison Reid" 1849-1921			1/1/10

On 9-3-1863, they were sent back to the Round Valley Reservation where they had left a year earlier—many were sick with chills and starving; 150 sick and elderly Concow Indians were scattered along the trail dying at a rate of 2 to 3 per day. Several sources reported the Indians were treated badly (whipped or even shot) along the way, especially those slowing the progress due to sickness or their young age. Included among the captives was Suwomine , the daughter of the Concow Headman and her Hawaiian husband, Keaala . See July 1884 for more detail from the Concow Chief. (Suwomine and Keaala were later allowed to leave Round Valley after he proved he was actually Hawaiian. Hunt and J.G. Moore are to raise a force of 75 men each to hunt Indians and collect expenses from citizens to cover the costs. Workman's wife, who was pregnant with their first child, died 2 months later; her 3 week old daughter died 1 week after Mrs. Workman. Note: Workman was living with James Mullen in Concow in 1870. 301	1865.08.09	Oroville	Oroville 8-8-1865 rumors that Indians made a raid on Concow Valley six miles above Yankee Hill yesterday. They killed a man named Scotch John and wounded Mrs. Workman. Miss Smith, sister of Mrs. Workman, was first reported missing. Later she was found behind the house with her throat cut from ear to ear. The house was robbed of $2,000 gold coin, two gold watches and other valuables. As there were only three who made the attack, there is a suspicion here that it was white men disguised as Indians. 315	1866.02.24	Clear Creek	Article about 5 Indians killed near Deer Creek between Cherokee and Wicks Ranch. Two believed to be responsible for the Workman murders last year (Dog skin and his son, Oregon City Charley), an Indian from Berry Creek, and another from Cherokee, were also killed. The squaw of Oregon Charley was shot in the face but not fatally wounded. A large party later carried off the dead. We have good authority for the statement that Indians go to and from the Nome Lackee Reservation. (I think they mean Round Valley aka Nome Cult Farm) and mixing with Indians who remain in the County. It is said the Concow Indians taken to the reservation for a second time two or three years ago, are now nearly all back here and mixed through the different tribes who remain on the south side of the river. (Article goes on and speculates about future Indian problems) Note: There were no serious problems between whites and Indians in Butte County I could find evidence of after this time. Probably because Big Foot, a Mill Creek Indian with a band of about 60 followers had been killed earlier. California Indians, Butte, Tehama and Lassen Counties Timeline

433	1923.00.00	Chico	Sim Moak publishes a book called "The Last of The Mill Creeks and Early Life in Northern California". Talks about being a part of the company that chased the Indians who killed the Robert Workman family in Concow. Mentions Hi Good and that he had at one time 40 scalps hanging from a tree in front of his house on Deer Creek. Hi Good was killed in 1870 by his Indian companion, Ned. Note: It appears Hi Good was primarily interested in getting involved with chasing down Indians when there was a white person murdered; this would justify taking no prisoners. 434	1925.00.00	California	A.L. Kroeber publishes a set of papers on the California Indians. In the case of the Maidu Indians, his work builds on the work of Stephen Powers done in 1871, Dr. Waterman and others associated with the University of California, as well as articles published by the Federal Government. The papers were later published as "Handbook of The California Indians". Kroeber had worked in 1911 with Ishi, the last of the Yahi Indians found near Oroville. 438	1930.00.00	Yankee Hill	Katie Clark Josephson, Yo-he-ma's daughter, writes a brief family history. She stated Yo-he-Ma's father was named Bercha, white name Joe Burchard (Note: See June 1872, seems this is unlikely). Yo-He-Ma's family was taken to Round Valley in 1861 (most likely Yankee Hill Indians at Big Bend rounded up in Sept 1863). Yo-He-Ma's parents were killed shortly after while picking berries in the woods. Also states brothers were killed (beaten to death) near Yankee Hill just before the family was taken to Round Valley. Yo-He-Ma's two sisters were named Oie-Muck-Na and Ha-teet-na. Also, an aunt who married a white man was killed near the West Branch while her husband was in Magalia. Also states Alfred Burr Clark hid Yo-He-Ma and her son Walter Clark (born 7 Aug 1860) in the house where they watched her family being taken away from an upstairs window. She never saw her family again. Katie Clark Josephson was given the Indian name Ha-teet-na by her mother Yo-he-ma after her Aunt. (see 1896) Note: The Clarks second child was William Clark born 29 Mar 1863.	Photo copy of letter in file			1/1/10
439	1935.01.08	Chico	Indian Village Fate to be Set - What disposition is made of the Chico Indian Village will depend on a ruling by Judge Harry Deirup. An argument that the property was held in trust in accordance with the wishes of the late Annie Bidwell and should go to some trustees was made by attorney Liking. The executor of the estate Wells Fargo Union Bank and Trust Company does not dispute the Indian's right to the village. However, the attorneys said they believe the bank should get some return for their thousands of dollars paid out in taxes on the property. A compromise was suggested by the executors that the state pay $4,000 for the village and 43 acres lying south of the Rancheria.	Oroville Mercury 1-8-1935	Y	Filed by Date	1/1/10

445	1978.00.00	California	Francis A. Riddell writes about Konkow and Maidu Indians in "Handbook of North American Indians" published by Smithsonian Institution. He greatly expands the area inhabited by the Konkow Indians to include Rich Bar to the North and almost to the Sutter Buttes to the South. He also changed the tribe's name spelling to Konkow. 447	2007.00.00	Oroville	Josephson family history by Rose Waugh , descendent of Yo-he-ma , states that the Cinos lived upon the Mountain House side of the river, Tankins were at Big Bend. Also states Captain Busche, Yo-he-Ma's father, was a scout for Lt. Grant, later President Grant. (This means he was at Fort Humboldt in 1854, not Round Valley. Fort Humboldt was active from January 1853 until 1870. Grant was stationed there in Jan. 1854 for five months when he resigned his commission and went home). 448	2010.10.14	Konkow	In an interview with Tony, who manages the Concow Campground and grew up in this area, he states he is familiar with 3 round house sites in Concow ---1 at Flea Valley and 1 at Big Bend. He states the largest round house site is on the opposite side of the lake across from the Concow Campground. The second site near Camelot, has a round house and about 40 house pit sites. (If you assume 5 people to a house pit, this one site would have supported 200 Indians). He also states a Konkow Chief is buried there as was told to him by Bryant Beavers. The third Concow site is on the opposite side of Concow Road near the Ishi Trail road. Note: I suspect all of these sites were abandoned around 1851 when waves of miners (reportedly miners in numbers nearing 2000, left Marysville in 1850) came to the area headed toward the Quincy area in search of the fabled Gold Lake. Some stayed in this area founding Rich Gulch in 1850. If all three sites had not been abandoned by 1851, they were when a larger number of miners (300-500) founded Spanishtown in 1856, near the current intersection of Pinkston Canyon and Concow Roads, less than 4 miles from the old Indian sites. The land had been claimed by white farmers by 1858. The tribes probably moved up past Flea Valley. See 7-10-1850 and 1.01 1858	Interview by Larry Mauch 10-14-10			1/1/10
449	2014.12.13		The current acceptable spelling of the tribe name by the local Indians has been changed to Koyoongkawi based on the actual pronunciation of the word based on language studies. It is interesting to note that the original spelling of Concow was hyphenated (Con-Cow) which put an accent on both C's until the 1870s, which would closer match today's spoken version when sounded out.
