LAKE HOLY PINES

Back in the old days before progress came to Butte County, the rivers were unpolluted, the sky clear and the Indians lived in peace. But such a condition was not to be tolerated because the stalwart of American civilization, the Real Estate Developer had a "Dream." What appeared to the faint-hearted as a limitless expanse of God Forsaken Wilderness was in reality a golden opportunity to carve a fortune out of the American Indians homeland.

Yes, free enterprise has responded once again to the desperate need of all you pioneers to break loose from urban bite, racial strife and high taxes. Why settle for urban blight in L.A. or the Bay Area, when you can build your own slum on the last remaining parcel of virgin wilderness.

Buy now, and have the price of your potato salad deducted from the 20 year mortgage you will incur purchasing one of our home sites.

Beauty is important to us at Holy Pines. After all, that's why you good folks buy our tiny lots at exorbitant prices. We'll promise to build a beautiful lake and stock it with thousands of ski boats. We'll erect a nine foot cyclone fence around you for security and aesthetic pleasure. Optional gun turrets are available to all you sportsmen for your deer and quail hunting enjoyment.

Our public relations director is a busy man here at Holy Pines. Some of our activities arouse ill feelings, but nothing a little image-making won't cure. History books are being written to show what "good guys" we've been. John Wayne has been contracted to make movies to show what fun it is to shoot Indians and build empires.

The above article was passed on to us by Lou Salzarulo, it was from C.A.V.E. in Chico, California, the article entitled Holy Pines Development & Mobile Home Sales, Inc.

CONTEST SECTION

The subject for the month of May is: Which race do you feel has suffered more injustices at the hands of the U.S. - the Blacks, Mexicans, Indians or Puerto Ricans? Do you feel they are being treated with more equality now than 20 years ago?

Please try to limit your letters to 500 words. We ask our readers to pick the winner for the month by phone call or letter. The winner will be announced in the last issue of the month and awarded $10.00. Regularly, the prize money would be $5.00; however, last months winner elected to leave the money in for this month.

What race do I think has suffered most at the hands of the U.S.? That would be a very hard question to answer. This government has been a strong advocate of white supremacy, since the first administration. This is not necessarily the land of the free and the home of the brave. It is the home of the brave, rich whites; the haves and have nots. There has been a lot of poetic conversation about equal opportunity for all, equal education and so forth. It simply isn't so. In some schools they can't afford pencils or crayons, while in other schools they can afford $130,000.00 swimming pools.

Employment opportunities are not the same. Some supreme white men simply will not hire an Indian, a Negro, a Puerto Rican or a Mexican;

no matter how skilled they are.

The only thing that we should keep in mind is that it's not too late to change all this. We can all start to realize that white man's God and the Gods of our minority groups are one and the same, and this same God created all men of all races, creeds and religions.

Everyone feels pain, hurt and apathy
 the same way so let's try to help each other instead of hurting each other. Give your brother a helping hand and maybe our world will be a better place for all of us to live in.

Sincerely,
 Stephanie Rowe

 body cast, but he is making good progress.

 his friends, as he is confined most of the time to the house.

 Sue and Roxie home for a visit. Sue brought her brand new daughter with her.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

Monday night many of our local residents attended the farewell party at Jarboe Gap. It was a rather sentimental occasion and a good time was had by all. Free drinks were served from 8 to 9.

John and Helen have been here for many years as were Ernie and Fay. The people of Yankee Hill, Concow and Big Bend area have had many years of fun and neighborliness, thanks to these people. All of us who were there commented on how much they will be missed. Singer Cliff Sims attended but decided to take the night off and just have fun.

Yes, we all had a wonderful time and wish many happy days to John, Helen and Fay.

Sincerely,
 Stephanie Rowe

A PSYCHIC EXPERIENCE

The following article was passed on to us by Mrs. Jay Grieco, it comes from an article in the San Francisco Sunday Examiner & Chronicle, the author is Moritz Thomsen.

I was driving from the feed store to the farm one day in Tehama County some ten years ago when this absolutely amazing thing suddenly happened: for no apparent reason I was raised up into a state of grace.

For about five minutes as I drove along that dry and unsensational road between Corning and Vina, the country all burned brown and gold with the fury of full summer, I saw the world with new eyes, the eyes of a poet or a prophet - and everything was inexpressibly beautiful.

More than that: everything had suddenly become transformed into a part of a simple and perfectly regulated plan. Each blade of grass, each single separate blade of grass stood out and glowed with an inner light; the distant mountains, until then almost hidden in smoke from the summer fires now moved closer, to be seen clearly and to be understood.

Even the bear cans which littered the road sides sparkled like jewels in a kind of beauty which is simply beyond description.

For five minutes then I was given the gift of poetic vision, a religious experience of such profundity that I have never been able to forget it. For that short time I saw with the eyes of a Van Gogh or a William Blake.

It was an experience so shattering that I'm sure it must lie at the base of all religious mysticism and in some way form the foundation of poetic creativity. Before I reached the bridge that crosses the Sacramento River it had all gone away; I was just an old hog farmer hauling some sacks of concentrate back to the pigs, but God knows I was a shaken one.

EDITORIAL

Enjoying a Mothers Day and combined birthday picnic at Lake Concow with several other families last Sunday was an experience we had not had in quite some time.

The price of $1.00 per car, per day, entitles you to camping privileges at the Lake front. The fee is merely a trespassing fee entitling you to cross private property adjoining the lake.

The old Frisbee place was once a beautiful setting, there are picnic tables provided, outdoor restroom facilities, and barbecue pits. There are several camp trailers settled there year around at present.

In spite of what could be a lovely peaceful setting, the campgrounds are in deplorable condition, due to littering. There are cans, papers, boxes, broken glass, dead fish, etc., everywhere. The outdoor restroom facilities have been abandoned for the good old outdoors.

It would seem that those charging fees to cross their land, those same people setting up the facilities, should be required to patrol the area to prevent such disrespect and plain old squaller.

We have been asked to point out that boats of any kind, and inner tube type waders are not permitted in any part of the lake at any time.

Perhaps those attempting to turn Lake Concow into a polluted mess such as Clear Lake, are outsiders who simply have no interest in this area, but do these people live that way at their homes? It is a shame, the lake is beautiful at present, it is disgusting to think that those people who so treasure their property to charge $1.00 per car per day to cross it, have no more interest in it than merely for the sake of money.

All correspondence to and for CYHI should be mailed to Route 1, Box 238-A, Oroville, California, phone number is 533-0714. Editor is Joyce Clark.

A DIFFERENT DRUMMER by Henry David Thoreau

Why should we be in such desperate haste to succeed, and in such desperate enterprises?

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.

Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.
