

JOSEPHSON, Cyril L.
MORRIS (DUVOLL), Mrs. Irene
Paradise Post
12-8-1950

Stirling City News

By LOIS HENRY

Mrs. Irene Morris and Cyril L. Josephson Sr. were married at a Reno, Nevada ceremony November 12, and are making their home here where Josephson has been employed by the Diamond Match Company for many years.

GATES, Henry Loyal
WRIGHT (CHURCHMAN), Mildred
Sacramento Bee
3-24-1951

Home Is Established

Mildred Churchman Wright and Henry Gates are at home in the Cherokee community following their wedding in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rose Churchman of Cherokee.

Gates is the son of Mrs. Hattie Gates, also of Cherokee. She was unable to attend the wedding because of illness. More than 50 friends and relatives from various communities in the state were present for the ceremony. A buffet luncheon served on the patio of the Churchman home.

KROEPELIN, Willis F.
 AITON, Miss Grace E. Aiton
 Oroville Mercury Register
 5-3-1951

MISS GRACE Elenore Aiton and Willis F. Kroepelin, above, were wed at the First Methodist Church. Following a honeymoon in Oregon, they will reside at 2233 Park Avenue. (Photo by Jack McHugh Photo Center; Mercury engraving).

Grace Aiton, Willis Kroepelin
 Exchange Wedding Vows Here

Miss Grace Elenore Aiton, daughter of Mrs. Grace Aiton of 1141 Montgomery street, became the bride of Willis F. Kroepelin last week end at the First Methodist Church.

The church was decorated with large bouquets of white stock snapdragons, roses and gladioli. The bride wore a traditional white satin gown with train, and a shoulder length veil and tiara of seed pearls belonging to Mrs. Alma Giovannani.

SHE CARRIED a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white orchids. Her jewelry was pearl earrings. Miss Aiton was given in marriage by her father, Wensley T. Aiton Jr. of San Francisco.

The maid of honor was Miss Jo Carello of 1164 Montgomery street, who wore a green taffeta and white embroidered organdy gown and carried an old-fashioned nosegay as a bouquet.

The bride's mother was attired in a navy blue suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of roses and gardenias. Mrs. F. C. Kroepelin, mother of the bridegroom, chose a gray dress with black accessories, with an iris corsage.

BEST MAN at the wedding was R. A. Corbaley Jr. Ushers were F. J. Stierstedter and Marvin Kroepelin. The Rev. Mr. Ellis E. Peterson presided at the double-ring ceremony, and Mrs. Lola Cochran was organist. Lee Hahn sang "Because." "I Love You Truly" and the Lord's Prayer.

A reception for the 150 guests, given by the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Corbaley Sr., was held in the lower hall of the church following the wedding.

The wedding cake was topped by bells, doves, silver leaves and a miniature bride and groom. Assisting as servers were Mrs. R. A. Corbaley Jr., Mrs. Craig Corbaley, Mrs. F. J. Stierstedter, Miss Myrna Corbaley and Miss Shirley Aiton of San Mateo.

OUT-OF-TOWN guests at the wedding and reception included William Jones of San Mateo, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Brewer of San Pablo, Miss Betty Wildberger of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Kroepelin of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kroepelin of Sacramento, Mrs. Charles Powell and daughter, Norma, and son, Charles Jr., of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Callahan of Ashland, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gray of Chico, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Campbell Jr. of Chico and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Campbell Sr. of Cherokee.

For her traveling attire, the bride chose a navy blue checked suit with red accessories. Following a honeymoon trip in Oregon, the couple will reside at 2233 Park avenue.

The newlyweds both are graduates of Oroville Union High School. The bride has been employed the past 1½ years at the Feather Mart. Kroepelin, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Kroepelin of Route 4, is employed by the county.

MR. AND MRS. LEROY G. GREEN

Joan Stimson, LeRoy Green Are Married in Petaluma

Joan Stimson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clement Stimson, Petaluma, became the bride of LeRoy George Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green, also of Petaluma, at impressive rites read Sept. 5 at 8 p.m. in the Methodist Church of Petaluma.

The Rev. Edgar Lowther officiated. White gladioli in large baskets were used to decorate the altar. Esther Reed daisies, tied with lace ribbon, were fastened to standards bearing candles at the ends of the pews. Pierce Thompson sang "For You" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Thompson.

Dr. Stimson escorted his daughter to the altar. Her gown was of nylon tulle over white satin, with a bodice and peplum of Chantilly lace, long sleeves and a V neckline. She wore a strand of pearls and her fingertip veil was attached to a coronet of lace and seed pearls.

The bride carried a white Rainbow Bible, topped with a white orchid and bouvardia streamers.

Maid of honor was Nancy Ward of Lemoore and bridesmaids were Leila Beth Shoemaker and Caroline Burns, both of Petaluma. The dresses were ice blue embroidered nylon tulle, over satin, fashioned ballerina length with blue coronets and shoes to match. They carried sprays of pink chrysanthemums, tied with pink ribbon.

Robert Stimson served the benedict as best man and ushers were Melvin Coops, Charles Malter, Harry Green Jr., and Albert Bottini.

A RECEPTION followed at the bride's home. Mrs. Stimson wore an Alice blue shantung with white hat and accessories. Both had corsages of baby orchids in rose shades.

The couple left for a honeymoon in the northern part of the state, driving a new car that was a gift from the Stimsons. Joan wore a grey-beige suit with navy accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The justweds are now at home in Berkeley, where they have entered the fall term at the University of California. Joan is a senior working for her teacher's credentials. LeRoy will receive his master's degree this term and then will go east for his Ph.D. in chemistry.

Among guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George Tebbe, Yreka; her great aunt, Mrs. Jennie Piltz, McCloud; the benedict's great aunt, Mrs. Winifred De Neuf, Petaluma, and the bride's cousin, Susan Tebbe, who passed the guest book.

GREEN, LeRoy
STIMSON, Joan
The Press Democrat
9-20-1953

MOORE, Frank
HALEY, Lillie
Oroville Mercury
12-7-1954

Lillie Haley, Frank Moore Nuptial Rites Read In Ceremony Preceding Concow Grange Meet

At a ceremony performed by the Rev. A. W. Reed of Oroville, Lillie Haley became the bride of Frank Moore at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

The nuptial rites were read just before the opening of the Concow Grange meeting in the presence of approximately 150 Grangers, friends and relatives of the couple.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Moore are long time residents of Yankee Hill community.

The bride chose for her wedding a blue crepe dress with embroidery and rhinestone highlights. She wore a corsage of Cecil Bruner roses and carried an evening bag of beige sequins over a white background.

The newlyweds were attended by the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Heath.

A huge wedding cake was presented the couple by Mr. and Mrs. Lavin Balaley.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore will be at home to their friends at their residence at Hendrick's Corners.

ROBINSON, Fredrick
KROEPELIN, Mary Eleanor
Oroville Mercury
4-28-1955

MARY KROEPELIN BECOMES BRIDE OF FREDRICK ROBINSON IN CHURCH RITES

Miss Mary Eleanor Kroepelin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Kroepelin of Long Bar Road, became the bride of Fredrick Robinson, son of Mrs. Sarah Robinson of Oakland, at informal ceremonies held Saturday evening in First Methodist Church. The Rev. L. W. Reneau officiated at the single ring service.

The bride chose for her wedding a blue dress with white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid with white stock.

Serving as bridesmaid was Winifred Aiton who was gowned similar to the bride. She wore a white iris corsage. Best man duties were performed by the bride's twin brother, Marvin.

A small reception was held for the couple at the bride's home.

The new Mrs. Robinson is a 1945 graduate of Oroville Union High School. She is an active member of Oroville Pageant Riders.

Her husband graduated from the Oakland High School before serving a term in the Army during World War II.

The couple will make their home in Oakland where he is employed in United Auto Service.