

NEHER, Charles Richard
POWELL, Delores Arlene
Sacramento Bee
6-9-1963

Delores Powell Is Bride Of Charles Neher Of Oroville

Delores Arlene Powell of Sacramento became the bride of Charles Richard Neher of Oroville in a ceremony last evening in the Glad Tidings Assembly of God Church in Sacramento.

Miss Powell, who was escorted by her brother, Victor H. Powell of Sacramento, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and silk organza styled with a Sabrina neckline trimmed with sequins and pearls. Dior roses highlighted the back of the bouffant skirt which ended in a chapel length train. A caplet of flowers and pearls secured the elbow length bridal veil and the bride's bouquet was white rosebuds and lily of the valley.

Bernice Enzi of Lodi was the maid of honor wearing a street length dress of royal blue starfire taffeta. Similar dresses in medium and light blue taffeta were donned by the secondary attendants, Mrs. Robert Chance of Sacramento and Janet Buchanan of Atwater.

A white organza frock was worn by Roberta Francis of Sacramento who was the flower girl.

The rings were carried by Ricky Baser.

Elmer Powell of Oroville performed the duties of the best man and ushers were David Brown of Oroville and Theodore Powell of Sacramento, a brother of the bride.

After a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, the newlyweds will be at home in Sacramento.

The bride, the daughter of Mrs. Albert B. Hutchison of Sacramento and the late Theodore J. Powell, is a graduate of Sacramento High School and attended Bethany Bible College in Santa Cruz.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Oroville Union High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman S. Neher of Oroville.

Newlyweds Make Home in Redding After Reno Rites

Newly married Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waugh Jr. are making their home in Redding.

The couple was married Nov. 28 in the Reno Wedding Chapel, Reno, Nev. The bride is the former Rose Josephson, daughter of Carel Josephson of Magalia.

For the occasion the bride chose a white brocade dress accented with white fur at the wrists. Her corsage was of tiny pink Cecil Brunner roses, lilies of the valley and white gardenias tied with white satin ribbon. The streamers were knotted with tiny pink rosebuds.

The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Eugene Josephson of Magalia served as her matron of honor, gowned in a cream colored knit dress with which she wore a pink rose corsage.

Rick Latham served as best man.

The bridal party was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Josephson, Dorely Josephson, all of Magalia, brothers and sister-in-law of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waugh Sr. of 1612 Mangrove Ave., parents of the bridegroom.

For the ceremony the bridegroom's mother wore a blue print silk dress and a pink rose corsage.

Saturday evening the newlyweds were honored at a reception in Chico Eagles Hall which had been decorated with white bells, doves and greenery. The program consisted of several orchestral selections by the Impacts and a solo "Because" by Miss Edith Reirsen, who accompanied herself at the piano.

Refreshments were served from a table which was highlighted by a four tiered wedding cake.

Many friends and relatives from here and out of town attended.

The new Mrs. Waugh is a 1964 graduate of Paradise High School. Her husband is a 1963 graduate of Chico High School.

The bridegroom is employed by Pacific Gas and Electric Co. in Redding.

STRYKER, Robert B.
SIMPSON (CONWAY), Mrs. Juanita
The Chico Enterprise Record
8-9-1965

Nevada Ceremony For Mrs. Simpson And R. Stryker

A single ring ceremony in Wildwood Chapel in Carson City, Nev., Aug. 1, united in marriage Mrs. Juanita Simpson of 1677 E. Eighth St., and Robert B. Stryker of Red Bluff.

Rev. Opal V. Boteler performed the quiet rites at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Stryker, whose parents, now deceased, were Isaiah Conway and Mrs. Florence Hamilton, operates Juanita's Indian Herb Store. Almost a lifetime resident of Chico, she attended both elementary and high school here. She also studied at Sacramento Junior College.

As a very young child, she was christened into the old Indian Church in Indian Village by the late Mrs. John (Annie K.) Bidwell, wife of the founder of Chico.

She belongs to Chico Toastmistress Club.

Stryker is the son of the late Robert F. Stryker and of Mrs. Ruth R. Stryker Sloan of Route 1, Anderson. He attended Red Bluff elementary and high schools. He is a past District 28 deputy grand master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

The newlyweds are at home at 846 W. Sacramento Ave.

9-3-1965

Pentz Club Hosts Shower for Bride

PENTZ E-R) — The Pentz Community Club entertained with a shower for Florine Hazel Leadlay at her home on Route 1, Oroville, recently. The honored guest had been married to Joe Watterson at Reno, Nev.

Dinner was served and a set of dishes was presented by the club. Pictures were taken.

Those present were Maud Ford, May Coon, Blanche Wageman, Gladys Wideriksen, Effie Hollands and Diana Cline, all of Durham; Elva Van Gooden and Frances Riggs, both of Stirling City; Florence Perdue of Paradise; Gussie Crawford and Ella Josephson, both of Oroville; Maren Kendall, Ethel Pearce and Lulu Lawrence, all of Pentz, and Lorena Philbrook and Margie Compton, both of Chico.

Stead-Giles Wedding Event On Saturday

A double ring ceremony united Earline Kay Stead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Stone of Taylorsville, and Edward Eugene Giles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Giles of Yankee Hill, on Saturday, March 11, in Community Methodist Church, Taylorsville.

The bride, who was given away by Darrel Stone, wore a floor length empire gown fashioned in taffeta, with lace and seed pearl trim at hemline. Worn over the sleeveless gown was a full length taffeta coat, with chapel length train and shot bell sleeves trimmed in seed pearls and lace. A princess crown of pearls and lace secured her bouffant shoulder length veil of silk illusion. Her bridal bouquet was made of yellow rose buds. For something old she wore an heirloom necklace of coral cameos set in gold. This necklace, by family tradition, is handed down to the youngest daughter in the family, and is more than 300 years old.

The bride's sister, Bonnie Jo Smith of Reno, served as matron of honor. Her gown was fashioned in royal blue satin, and she carried a bouquet of bronze Mums.

Mearl R. Stead, uncle of the bride, served as best man; and the ushers were Carl Stead, brother of the bride; and Dale Williams, her cousin, all of Greenville.

GILES, Edward Eugene
STEAD, Earline Kay
Feather River Bulletin
3-16-1967

The 2:30 pm ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles E. Davis, of Greenville. Music was played by Mrs. Margaret Cooke, and Mrs. Betty Davis was soloist. The church was decorated with baskets of gold and bronze Mums and candleabras; and the social hall was decorated with daffodils and white satin bows for the reception which followed.

Earline is a graduate of Greenville high school with the class of 1965, and of a modeling and finishing school in Reno. Edward is a graduate of Oroville high school, class of 1958; attended Yuba College in Marysville, and is presently employed at Moak Logging Co.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stead wore a navy blue and beige knit suit, and her corsage was red rose buds. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Giles, wore an orange ensemble with black accessories and her flowers were yellow rose buds.

Approximately 100 guests attended the wedding in spite of the snow storm; among them were Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf of San Francisco; Mrs. Jerry Hale of Gridley; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hung, Mr. and Mrs. Berle Brents, of Quincy; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Giles of Yankee Hill; Jack Giles of Gerber; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thorne of Sacramento; Donald Armstrong of Oroville; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stevens of Red Bluff; Brenda Giles of Sacramento; Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Batson of Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Key, Susanne and Dianne; and Mr. and Mrs. Skeeter Smith, of Crescent Mills; Mrs. Hannah Schlagel of Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moak, Jr., of Yankee Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith of Reno.

The newlyweds will establish their first home in Taylorsville.