Powers-Rutherford Wedding.

On Tuesday evening at seven o'clock a large company gathered in the parlors of Mr. and Mrs. John Rutherford, of Wyandotte, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Minnie to Robert S. Powers, of Oroville. Both of the young people are well known and very popular in this part of Butte county.

A large bay window had been elaborately, yet with fine taste, decorated and adorned with ferns and chrysanthemums and overhead hung a handsome floral marriage bell and beneath this bell the happy couple stood. The bride was dressed in cream colored surah with ornaments of natural orange blossoms. As she is one of the handsomest young ladies in Butte, and as the groom is a fine looking gentleman, they made a striking and attractive couple.

Miss Lillie Powers acted as bridesmaid and was handsomely dressed in blush pink India silk. Frank Rutherford stood by her side as groomsman.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. L. J. Garver, of Oroville. At the conclusion of the marriage ceremonies, the company were invited to a bountiful wedding supper to which all did ample justice. A Case of Love.

Charles Lohmuller and Mrs. Georgia Peachy, were married at the residence of the bride in this city this morning at 5 o'clock, by Justice Leonard. After their marriage the wedded couple and Mrs. Peachy's family departed on the morning train for Los Angeles where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Peachy is the widow of the late Frank Peachy, who was well known in the public affairs of this county. Mrs. Peachy would probably never have consented to wed again had she not met Mr. Lohmuller. That gentleman arrived in Oroville this Summer to work in the pipe manufactory, and as that institution is in the neighborhood of where Mrs. Peachy resided, they fell in each other's way and cupid did the rest. It was undoubtedly a case of love and in the joining of the two hearts much happiness is expected to be the result.

MARRIED.

His Grace Archbishop Riordan, assisted by Rev. The bridal toilets were gems of art; the bride wearing a gown of green silk and carrying nuptial buds, the maids being attired in white silk and carried La France roses.—S. F. Post.

On Monday morning last at the residence of the bride's parents at Merrimac Mills Julius John Frank Clement DeSeille aged 47 of Hurleton was married by Justice Windrem to Miss Maria Beavers, aged 15. The groom is a Frenchman who for years lived near Wyandotte and owned the property known as the Mount Ida Olive Farm at present owned by Judge Gray and which contains the largest olive grove in Northern California. He was but little known, was not successful as a farmer and finally sold the property for less than he had paid for it. He drifted about the county for a time but finally settled near Hurleton where he was living when his mother, a wealthy lady of Paris, died leaving him a fortune estimated to be worth $80,000. Made rich by this legacy he became desirous of a wife and his choice was Miss Beavers whom we understand to be of part Indian blood. The wedding was a happy event though only a limited number of guests were present. There was an abundance of wine and cake and all those who were fortunate enough to be invited enjoyed the event greatly. The newly wedded couple went at once to their home where they have settled down to wedded bliss.

Farquhar performed the nuptial ceremony. Nearly one hundred guests were present to witness the pleasing ceremonies.

The parlors, dining room and hall were elegantly adorned with ivy, ferns and flowers. In these decorations roses were used in profusion and we never saw a finer display of these handsome and lovely flowers.

The young couple stood beneath a floral arch formed of white chrysanthemums and from it was suspended a marriage bell made of the same pure white flowers. The bride was attired in white silk with veil, and orange blossoms and the costume was prettily made. We confess our inability to correctly describe a lady's dress and so do not attempt it.

The groom wore the customary suit of black.

The large parlors were completely filled with guests and each one seemed to enjoy the happy occasion.
