JAY'S POT POURRI

It isn't always easy to understand why the responses we expect from others do not meet our expectations. Separating oneself objectively can be part of the solution. For instance, a sense of guilt ought not cloud the real reason for a disappointment. Because, doing for others without expecting specifics or any return, should be a natural human action thru love and feeling for another.

One's material possessions do not elevate the real person, if it is only wearing a label to be noticed. Nor laying claim to ancestral heritage for prestige, if the real 'me' (identity) be unworthy.

THOUGHT & INSPIRATION

To be aware of our Source.....the givenness of God....Is man's confidential endurance through the vicissitudes of his living... to move with reverence through all of life, always seeking and finding, always building and rebuilding, always repenting, always rejoicing. GLIMPSE INTO THE PAST

The following was submitted to us by Lila Hollopeter. It was printed in the Chico Enterprise Record - August 28, 1978.

August, 1948 - Members of the Concow Subordinate Grange Monday "begged" the Board of Supervisors to do something about the roads in Yankee Hill. A resolution submitted by three grange members asserted that the roads were narrow, rough and unsafe, and that residents "begged for relief from this grievous situation." Signers of the document were George E. Hopkins, Leslie E. Webb and Frank Malinoski. Hopkins, spokesman for the group, claimed that grange organizations in Paradise, Thermalito, Durham and the Pomona Grange had endorsed the resolution.

He claimed that the Concow School was the only one in Butte County that had no paved road in front of it, although with an assessment in the school district of $1,850,000.00 it rates third highest in the county. The Board after some discussion referred the question to Road Commissioner Bert Paxton.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

I am more and more convinced that Golden Feather Echoes is a very valuable asset to this community. The wise advice given by one of the contributors is to be very valuable if taken as good advice to follow.

I appreciate the Pastors Corner. Where even two or three people are gathered together in the name of the Lord, He is there by His Spirit. Just to have His recognition is the greatest asset that any one could possibly wish for.

If one reads the Book of Daniel through can be a help.

Thank you for being the Editor of such a valuable paper.
Sincerely,
Elice (Grandma) Neher

Dear Editor,

Although I am not a member of your community, and indeed I am not even sure of where it is, I do enjoy your newsletter.

I read it each week at the Butte County Library. Your small community sounds much like one where I grew up, in Ohio. So I find your accounts refreshing and somewhat nostalgic, even though I do not know of whom or where you write.

I applauded your decision to cut down on weekly columns. It is interesting to me that those with much to say find the shortest means possible to convey volumes of information, while those who offer little of interest or importance will ramble on with morsels of boring trivia endlessly.

Reluctant to become one of the latter group, I will wish you well in your venture and success in moderation.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Edwina Tyler
Oroville, California

Dear Editor,

Thank you! Thank you! I do hope the "Pastor" will follow your request and cut down on his column!

I buy the GFE to find out what is happening in the community and for the bits of past history which I really enjoy. I do not buy the paper to receive a sermon, for that I go to my Church or read my Bible if I find myself in need of God's word, and I resent seeing a big chunk of my paper used for something that isn't what I consider newsworthy. I do not think I am the only one who shares the opinion that "sermons should stay in Church, not in the newspaper".

Sincerely,
D. R. Ross
Oroville, California

WILD FLOWERS

By: Jay

Abundant in the arid desert and canyon country of the western United States, the deep orange-yellow California poppy blooms from February to September in open grasslands up to an altitude of 6500 feet. The Skyrocket Gilia blooms from June to September along open rocky, sandy slopes, its long tubular, scarlet flowers have also earned the name of Skunk Flowers. The purplish-rose flowers of the low trailing Sand Verbena blooms from February to July, mostly at lower altitudes in the open, sandy desert. The Evening Primrose is a perennial herb whose white aging pink flowers show from April to September along dry pinon, juniper and sagebrush slopes. The broad-bordered Bee-hawk-Moth has wings transparent as glass, with a darkened area in the forewings can be observed collecting nectar.

PASTORS CORNER

By: Rev. Steve Lamkin, Little Church on the Mountain

MURMURING BRINGS GOD'S WRATH.

In order to abide by the Editor's request for shorter material, let me share only from God's word with you this scripture. It is written in Galatians 5;19-26.

"Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are; immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, disputes, dissensions (Murmuring - Lamkin's free translation), factions, envyings, drunkenness, carousings, and things like these, of which I forwarn you just as I have forwarned you that those who participate such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. BUT...the fruit of the Spirit (God's Holy Spirit) is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self control; against such things there is no law. Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit (God's Holy Spirit) let us also walk by the Spirit. Let us not become boastful, challenging one another, envying one another."

It is written: Matt. 23-37-39, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her. How often I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were unwilling. Behold your house (household - family) is being left to her desolate. For I say to you, from now on you shall not see Me (Jesus) until you say, BLESSED IS HE THAT COMES TO ME IN THE NAME OF THE LORD."

Editors Note: We would like to thank Mr. Lamkin for complying with our request for a shorter column. We feel confident that he understands the necessity for this, and we also feel confident that he understands the editor was solely responsible for this decision. These decisions are not always easily made, and they are never met with approval by all the parties involved. So it is quite rewarding to see those directly affected accept these changes with understanding and patience.
