MAY WEDDING

Wendy Pyle, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Jim Pyle of Yankee Hill, became the bride of Terry Jacobsen, son of Mrs. Carol Thompson of Oroville and Mr. LeRoy Jacobsen of Ray, N.D. on May 24 at a double-ring evening ceremony in the First United Methodist Church in Oroville.

The bride's gown was of Silesta chiffon with a sunburst pleated skirt. The high necked bodice, skirt and sleeves were trimmed with shirred lace with embroidered yoke. The full pleated skirt extended to a chapel length train. Her bonnet-cap headpiece, trimmed with small venice flowers, matching flowers on the dress, held a 4-tiered lace fingertip veil. For something old and borrowed the bride wore an heirloom ruby necklace from her late great grandmother Mrs. Ida I. Fansher, which has been handed down and worn in weddings for over four generations. The bride carried a cascade of maiden hair fern, mauve silk camellias, burgundy carnations and azaleas, made by the bride's mother.

Bridal attendants were: Maria Pando, Maid of Honor; and bridesmaids Leslie Pyle, Deanna Stewart, Debbie Klenkenberg and Pat Jacobsen. Julia Stephens of Chico was flower girl. They were attired in gowns of pink and rose and carried bouquets of pink and burgundy silk azaleas.

The groom's brother, Jerry Jacobsen, served as Best Man. Groomsmen were Bryan Wood, Larry Wooton, Jim Pyle Jr., and Mike Jacobsen, Jasen Kerr from Napa was ring bearer. All were attired in burgundy tuxedos, pink shirts and pink carnation boutinnieres.

Soloist Debbie Berryman sang "Ever Green" and "I Love You Just The Way You Are". Donna Moore accompanied on the piano.

The 5-tiered wedding cake, serving 200 guests, sat upon a handmade heirloom table cloth crocheted by the bride's great-grandmother, the late Mrs. Laurimer from Thornton.

The Dinner Reception, prepared by the bride's mother, was held in the Church Social Hall and was served by the women of the church.

Out-of-town guests were: Dr. & Mrs. John Kelleker and daughter from Portland, Oregon; Mr. & Mrs. Steven Kerr and children from Napa; Mr. & Mrs. Gary Wells of Redding; Mr. & Mrs. Roy Wells of Corning; Mr. & Mrs. Hugh Stephens of Cottonwood; Mr. & Mrs. Bill Stubblefield and Mr. & Mrs. Lloyd Hutton of Marysville; Mrs. Ltha Burns, grandmother from Sacramento; Miss Sophia Stephens of Sacramento, and Mr. & Mrs. Lary Wooton of Reno.

Weddings -

Marina Del Rey was the setting for the July 12th marriage of Susan Uhrich and David Bowen. Attending the couple were Phyllis Gerich of Oceanside and Jim Whitmoyer of Westwood.

Following the wedding ceremony in Burton Chase Park, a buffet luncheon was served at the home of Dave and Gloria Whitmoyer, who are frequent visitors in this area.

Susan is the daughter of Rich and Ann Royal of Yankee Hill Road and she attended Concow School and Oroville High School. Sgt. Bowen is the son of Virgil and Besta Bowen of Colorado Springs, and attended schools in that area before joining the Marine Corps. Sue's sister Kathy Semler and husband Steve were also able to join the family in celebrating this most happy occasion. It was a lovely wedding, a perfect day and a happy group, celebrating the beginning of a new life together. The newly-weds are now enroute to Cherry Point, North Carolina and a new assignment at the Marine Air Station.

PERSONALS

NEHER / STRATTON WEDDING

On May 29 at 2:00 p.m. in Calvary Baptist Church of Oroville, Karen Lynette Neher became the bride of Ron Douglas Stratton in a double ring ceremony.

Karen is the daughter of Leo and Betty Neher of Big Bend Road. Ron is the son of Bill and Laura Stratton of El Torro, Ca., and are former residents of our area.

The Rev. Douglas Taylor performed the ceremony before approximately 75 guests and relatives.

Mary Taylor sang "God Has Given You to Me." Diane Stanton played the piano and organ.

Patty Shelton was Maid of Honor and Carret Hereford was Best Man.

Flower Girl was Shellie Miller, niece of Karen, of Paradise; Lucas Schwartz, nephew of Karen, was the Ring Bearer.

Guests were seated by Steve Miller and Rick Schwartz.

Judy Stanley attended the guest book. Debra Schwarts and Nancy Miller were servers at the reception.

Karen's dress of lace over El Dorado polyester was designed with Empire waist and full gored skirt, with sheer lace inset at neck and sheer full-length sleeves. Her veil was attached to a white headband decorated with white silk star flowers, babys-breath and seed pearls. Her train was lace over polyester also, with a 2 inch ruffle. Karen's ensemble was designed and made by her mother.

Karen's color scheme of pink, blue, and white was carried out by her floral arrangements of silk flowers made by her sisters.

A reception followed in the Social Hall for all those present. The wedding cake had a large bottom layer with a smaller 2nd layer on pillars covered with pink roses and white bells. The top ornament was made of bells and pink flowers surrounding a bride and groom.

Karen and Ron will be living in Oroville where they are both employed.

Out-of-town guests included Frances Frye and Kathy McCashland of Auburn, Ca; Deb and Rick Schwartz and Lucas and Gideon of Winton, Ca.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Stick, Bill and Dorothy Yeater and Marlene Kenyon --all of Chico; Joan Stratton of Irvine, Ca.; Mr. & Mrs. Um. Stratton of El Torro, Ca.; Barbara & Dave Keeler and Jill from Sacramento; Gail & Wayne Renfro & Michael of Ceres, Ca.; Judy Stanley of Durham, Ca.; Leslie & Kim Neher of Milpitas, Ca.; Grandma Neher of Paradise, and Nancy and Steve Miller & Shellie and Stephen of Paradise.
