When sixteen years of age he crossed the plains to California, and made his first settlement on the place he now owns, then the home of his father and brother, who had preceded him to the state. From there he removed to Santa Clara, and was married in the town of Santa Clara to Miss Nancy E. Langford, daughter of Pleasant S. and Sarah M. Langford, on the fifth of October, 1868. His farm consists of 160 acres, handsomely located in Concow Valley, on which he has a hotel that he is making first-class in every respect. The location of the house is 2,000 feet above the sea level, and offers every inducement to tourists. A view of it may be seen on another page.

Joseph B. Mullen, another brother came to Arizona in 1886. The railroad across the southern part of the state was finished, but he had his family take the stage from Maricopa to Phoenix. The next year he bought land near his brother.

Chico Enterprise, September 5, 1942: Lone Survivor of G.A.R. Gives consent to Scrap Old Cannons. The first step toward converting cannons in Chico to the war effort in the national scrap campaign was taken this morning when John M. Mullen, the sole surviving member of the Grand Army of the Republic, gave his consent to Dr. E.L. Meyers, mayor of Chico, to sell the three barrels of the cannons in the G.A.R. plot of the Chico cemetery. Proceeds will be divided between the USO, the local American Red Cross chapter and the Chico airport organization.

Mullens [sic] stated, "I, being the only survivor of the G.A.R., give my consent of the G.A.R. for the sale of the cannon barrels now resting in Chico cemetery, the said barrels to be sold to the regular junk trade and be converted into our present war effort ..." One of the barrels rests on wooden wheels and the other two on concrete foundations.

Army of the Republic in Northern California, who died last night at his home here.

Mullen, who would have been 100 years old next month, was born December 31, 1844, in Louisa county, Iowa, enlisted in the Grand Army on February 27, 1863, at Oroville and received his honorable discharge on May 14, 1866, at San Francisco.

He was mustered into service in March 1863, at Sacramento as a private in Company A, first California volunteer cavalry, under Capt. E.C. Ledyard and Col. Oscar M. Brown. The first cavalry was repeatedly engaged with hostile Apaches and other Indian tribes while stationed at posts in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, sustaining numerous losses not only through actual fighting, but also during marches thousands of miles through the mountains and deserts.

His company was among those which destroyed a Kiowa village with 150 lodges and routed the Kiowa and Comanche Indians completely in November, 1864, under the command of Col. Kit Carson, and also fought other tribes in the Sacramento mountains, New Mexico, near San Andreas Pass, near White Mountains and at La Monica springs. After faithful duty and untold hardships, the regiment was mustered out at the San Francisco presidio.

Mullen then served as a member of General Mason's escort from Los Angeles across Arizona and later as a 'packer' with General Crook's expedition from Fort Whipple, Ariz., ending his service with the San Carlos campaign against the Indians.

The veteran and Alice M. Clanton were married on January 7, 1892 [note different date than reported above], at Phoenix, Ariz., and had two children, Charles Ralph and Ethel Jeanne, both of Chico, who survive. A charter member and officer of guard of J.W. Owen post at Phoenix, Mullen was also a member of Halleck Post No. 19, Department of California and Nevada, Grand Army of the Republic.

Graveside services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, with the Rev. Henry Searle of First Christian church officiating, assisted by V.F.W. Post No. 1555. Black Johnson and Brusie are in charge.
